general of the army, made public today.

A limited number of death sentences have been imposed by the army, but all have been commuted, the report says. It is doubtful if this record has ever before been paralleled in warfare.

Since the beginning of the army and up to June 30, 1918, a total of 18,357 officers and enlisted men of the United States army were tried for various offenses by general courtmartial. Of this number 10,783 soldiers and officers were convicted and punished in various ways, while 1,484 were acquitted. Of the total number tried, 11,959 were enlisted men and 642 were officers.

A total of 257 officers were sen-tenced to dismissal from the army, during this period, the great majority of the sentences being carried out.

of the sentences being carried out. The total number of enlisted men dishonorably discharged from the army during this period was 2,708.

The predominating charges against officers were: Absence without leave, drunkenness, and conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman.

The proportionate scale of offenses charged against enlisted men during the period covered, is: Disobedience, 3,946; charges of desertion, 3,358; absence without leave, 2,927 charges; Larceny, 1,888 charges; sentinel violations, 1,850 charges; assault, 234 charges, and drunkenness, 774 charges.

Many of the officers and soldiers tried had more than one offense charged against them. The majority of these offenses decreased in number as the war progressed, the re-

Kolchak Says Russia Needs Representative Body.

(London Times-Phil. Ledger Cop. Cable.)

Omak, Nov. 30.—(Delayed.)—In an interview on the situation in Russia, Admiral Kolchak said today:

"If militarist success is to be attained within Russia and satisfactory relations established with other countries the supreme power must be wielded by one hand.

"They call me dictator, but history indicates that republics have produced dictators in moments of difficulty. I shall never associate myself with any effort to restore the old regime in Russia, as I am convinced that only those states can exist which are founded on a sound democratic basis. When normal conditions have been restored a national assembly ought to be convened—not the constituent assembly which has been discredited because it was brought into being when everything in Russia was going down hill. The country needs an assembly more truly representative of the people."

WASTE OF MONEY

Congressional investigation of Proposed Aerial Mail Service Demanded.
Chicago, Dec. 19.—Charging that Postmaster-General Burleson has been guilty of diarupting the new aerial mail service and of being "about to start on a great waste of public money." Capt. B. B. Lipsner, lately resigned as superintendent of that service, has demanded a congressional investigation, it became known here.

The demand is made in a letter to Senator L. Y. Sherman, of Illinois, the contents of which have been made public. Capt. Lipsner, among other charges, asserts that the war department airplane construction, which cost the nation $656,000,000, is to be "junked" and that Second Assistant Postmaster-General Praeger has announced an appropriation of $186,000,000 for new construction will be sought.

NEW USE FOR TANKS

French Government Will Convert Them Into Commercial Instruments.
Paris, Dec. 10.—(I. N. S.)—Tanks. which played so great a part in the winning of the war for the allies, may prove important commercial instruments in time of peace.

The government is going ahead with the construction of a number of $10,000 tanks which is causing much discussion among the socialists, many of whom want the work stopped.

But it has been found by the ministry of waterways that tanks tow cannibarges ideally, and so, in view of the shortage of horses, the "land ships" now being built may be completed and used for that purpose. This plan does not meet with universal favor, however. In view of the shortage of materials the suggestion is made that the half-completed tanks be knocked down and made over into motor busses and taxlcabs.

Another suggestion is that the tanks be finished and then sold to Italy or the United States.

It is stated that the property was purchased at a price of $5,000,000 from John T. Shedd. of Marshall Field & Co., and as soon as certain leases expire the building will be crected.

Spa, Belgium, Dec. 10.—(A. P.)—
There is no more interesting spot along the German border today than this famous town in which the international armistice commission is holding conferences amidst a dramatic setting, which, were it seen on the stage, would be recorded as a masterpiece of the histrionic art. Generalissimo of France Accepts Invitation.

New York, Dec. 10.—Soon after the settlement of the terms of peace, Marshal Foch of France is expected to visit the United States as the guest of New York City.

In response to a cablegram from Mayor John Hylan, congratulating the allied generalissimo and extending an invitation to visit America, Marshal Foch sent the following reply:

"I am profoundly touched by the sentiment that has inspired your message, and I thank you for your invitation. I appreciate highly the honor of the 'right of the city' (freedom of the city) which the people of New York offer me, Please transmit to them, with my acceptance, expression of my warmest gratitude." ters, and the American general is using the same bed in which the "Old Man of the Lakes" must have spent many sleepless nights. Only Way to Deal With Bolshevism is to shoot it Out.

Atlantic City, N. J., Dec. 10.—"The only way to deal with bolshevism is to shoot it out." said ex-President William Howard Taft yesterday, in an address at the opening session of the Investment Bankers' association convention here.

"We should make a start in Russia right soon," he continued. "How this is to be done is a question that will be settled at the peace table, but it is apparent that we must send men in sufficient force to set up a constituent assembly and representative government."

T. S. Stewart Falls and Crushes His Skull.

Fort Payne, Ala., Dec. 10.—(Special.)

—While unloading a bale of cotton at a gin in Fort Payne yesterday, T. S. Stewart, an old and well-known citizen of this place, fell from the wagon and struck the back of his head against a sill or heavy plece of timber, crushing his skull and rendering him unconscious. The doctors give no hope of his recovery, as the entire back of his skull was so badly crushed that it is impossible for him to recover and doubtful if he ever regains consciousness again. He is about 65 years old and is a quiet and unassuming citizen, a good Christian man. He has no children, but has an invalid wife who has been seriously ill for some time herself.
